This instructor is great. I was nervous about taking an online class. Sometimes it is hard to get a response from an instructor in person so I did not know how it would be having never seen the man. He was awesome at responding to any question or concern I had. I took 2 online classes this semester and really feel that his was put together with thought given to any potential problems.
I really like the speed at which Professor Bryan responds to my concerns over assignments. Also, the way this course is set up was very helpful to me as a career woman, wife, mother of two and student this style of learning is very realistic. Thanks.
This is my first online class and I can say that Dr. Bryan makes it a wonderful experience for me the way that he outlines the course. This is self teach but he made it easy to understand. I really like his methods and hope you will not change for the sake of other students like me.
I like the fact that he answers email quickly and explains my concerns thoroughly. It shows that communications with his students is important for him and that is very important with me as well.

I appreciated that no matter how small or big a question he was always willing and available to answer it. Also, he had all of his course requirements clearly explained right at the beginning of the course.

He is absolutley fabulous! Very available to assist with questions and has a fast response time.

I enjoyed this online course with the instructor. I had one difficult situation with my CD not working. I was unable to download the CD on my laptop which made it difficult to grasp the information like I should have. I read the required chapters but with time restraints, I could not get more involved in the course as I had planned. I did keep up with the course assignments without the CD but I did not know how I could proceed without it having to buy another course book. Needless to say, I did complete the course but I was a little disappointed. I was unable to complete the last assignment because of my disk situation. But at any rate, I thank the instructor for being patient with me and helping when possible.

goes by course outline

has all test and quizzes available so that if students are ready to test before they are due they can.

Question 21

What changes, if any, would you like this instructor to make in this course?

None- it was great!

none

nothing

It may be helpful to include some Quickbooks in this course just so everyone is exposed to both accounting systems but that may be cost prohibitive.

I just want him to make the questions in the assignments more clear. Maybe the way it is worded.

The course is nicely documented as is. I would not ask the instructor to change anything.

This course was very valuable for me in the progress of pursuing my degree and I feel very fortunate to have been in Professor Bryan's class.

I think he is an excellent teacher and I have no problem recommending him to others. I will enroll again in his class if there is anything offered that I will have to take. I truly enjoy this class eventhough I was doing it myself. He took away my fears of online class.

Good Job! Keep up the good work! :)
