This class has gone a long way in helping me understand and knowing what to expect when I start teaching. The course was great and I will cherish the knowledge that I have recieved from taking this course and now I can not wait to move forward with my career in teaching.

What I liked most about the instructor's teaching methods was how the assignments followed the text. I also like how feedback was given to every students response that sometimes included websites or information that could help in the future.

the teacher made this online class very fun for me. I felt as if I could email the teacher with any questions about the course work. It really helped me complete my work when the teacher answered their own discussion board questions for us to read.

I liked the way the teacher helped us think critically about the teaching profession and all that is evolved in becoming a teacher. I feel that I have learned a lot in this class. The teacher took his time and put lot efforts to help us understand the material.

Because this is an online class it is hard to evaluate instruction because of the way the class was set up but I can say, feedback was communicated very well in the weekly discussion boards. The teacher took the time to respond to each class member, I found that to be impressive. That means he read every response and didn't just check to make sure it was turned in. The responses were done in a timely matter which I find in online classes to be rare.

Discussion Board questions are very clear.

I think the evaluation method is really helpful. The discussion board questions helped me to understand each chapter and main concepts. It helped me more than a traditional test would have. I also liked reading other classmates posts and looking to see what they thought of the same question. I also enjoyed the feedback it made me think about the subject more and provided welcome insight.

He makes all assignments understandable and if for some reason you have a question he gives you an answer as soon as possible. He makes everything plain.

The only thing I did not like about this class was the time period on the due dates because we have so much in our minds trying to get an education, work and raise children and when I saw the due dates it stood on my mind but the time period was hard to keep in mind. Other than this was an excellent class and the teacher was fair.

There wasn't anything I disliked about the instructor's teaching method.

i disliked nothing about this class.

Question 21: Essay

What changes, if any, would you like this instructor to make in this course?

No time limit on the due dates.

none.

There aren't any changes I would make.

It was difficult for me to get the 5 pm deadlines straight, I struggled with that because I'm so use to assignments in blackboard being accepted until at least 11:50 pm. That was just a time adjustment on my part but a time change would be consistent with what most teachers are doing.

nothing.

I would have liked to have the second field experience update farther along in the semester. I had not had a chance to start my field work and felt like I missed out on important feedback on the topics for my final paper.
