This was a very open course. In other words, it was not as rigid as most. The best part was that we did not have to memorize terms and theories. Instead we were able to read and relate to the material in the book.

The instructor was very open to ideas and understanding. Discussions were outstanding and allowed everyone to honest.

This is my first time going on line in my life and I loved the way the professor laid out out his discussion forums. As a matter of fact I loved the whole set up. Everything was explained clearly and in full detail. I was afraid when I first started. When I saw all of the instructions, I almost had a panic attack. However, the more I read the more I began to understand what I was reading. I like you style Professor Byran.

He made sure that the students were getting everything out of his class.

The deadlines are detailed well in advance, and we are able to learn from each other.

I like how he makes a comment to our work after we submit an assignment.

This was by far my favorite class. Dr. Bryan is an excellent instructor. The course information is given at the beginning of the semester and there are no supprises as to what is expected of the students.

Based on the exceptional qualities exhibited, and encouraged, it is easier to identify what Dr. B didn't do...he didn't provide the opportunity to obtain his exemplary curriculum in a face-to-face classroom. He epitomizes the qualities of an Educator, and because of that I am more passionate about completing my certification and look forward to teaching on a daily basis.

I think that Dr. Bryan is very organized. He has a true love of teaching and it shows through all of his postings and assignments.

I have taken many online classes, but this class was great. Dr. Bryan gives each student feedback and communcation was good.

I like the way he offers helpful info. to us. He really puts 100% into his teaching. He gives a quotes to live by as well as his personal experiences.

I like the fact that he shares his personal experiences not only as a teacher/professor, but also from when he was a student himself. He had many stories to share that just made understanding the text and what's to come in my teaching career that much easier.

The teaching methods that I enjoyed was that he was available anytime the students needed him, and he gave feedback after a homework/writing assignments.

He gave us choices about what to do on our writing assignments, instead of just telling us what to do.

I like the fact that he wants everyone to communicate . i also like how he puts his input into responses as well.

I liked everything.

I disliked nothing.

Nothing

The way things are posted on the discussion board. It is a good setup however I have to write things down, read and then come back to my computer, and having to click and reload and click and reload, and then come back and do the same thing to post took forever!

It was also very hard to try and read everyones posts in 2 days, especially with 3 other classes.

Nothing, he's an excellent teacher

I do not dislike anything about his teaching methods.

I didn't have any concerns with anything in this class

My suggestion would be make the posts due on a Monday and then give until Friday to respond.

I like his use of time and organization- it is difficult to manage and effectively teach an on-line course- Although- I think he has a great technique and he executes it perfectly!

I liked the class very much.
